Looking for a prime commercial property in a highly accessible location? Look no further than King's Pointe! Our commercial and retail complex is conveniently situated just off Highway 2 and Stony Trail, making it an ideal choice for businesses seeking high visibility and easy access for their customers. One of the many perks of choosing King's Pointe is the ample parking available on site. Your customers will never have to worry about finding a spot to park, which can help boost foot traffic and increase sales. Our current tenants include a diverse mix of businesses, such as a dentist, daycare, halal meat shop, oral surgeon, grocery store, and pizza restaurant. This means that your business will be in good company, with a range of complementary services and offerings nearby to help attract customers.
