Senator Buchanan, Lethbridge, Alberta

This commercial building is located on a street with high traffic volume, has good visibility, and has had some upgrades in recent years including a/c, roofing, and newer furnace.

Large open floor plan suitable for service/retail, and is currently used as a church. There are 4 parking stalls at rear plus street parking out front. You have 2 separate restrooms and a kitchen/eating area in the back. Basement has some storage area along with the mechanical room. Taxes are based on current use of building as a church, and could change depending on new usage.

Built in 1916
