Downtown West, Stettler, Alberta

This fantastic office space is available for lease in Stettler, AB. The building is just a block of main street, on the lower level of an established accounting firm. With banks, lawyers, post office, and other professional services being your close neighbors, this location is ideal for any business type. Inside, the office is a bright and clean space. There is a huge waiting area with fluorescent lighting and a large window facing the street. Behind the reception desk is a large work area with space for desks and cabinets. Down the hall, there are 4 offices and a lunch room with fridge, sink, microwave, and table. Some office furniture is available to use as well. There are bathrooms in the common hall. Included are gas, power, water, and basic janitorial services. This is a great spot to start up your business or upgrade your location.
