Price Reduced!

Here’s your chance to own a massive building with endless potential at a price that’s hard to beat. With several attached units that could generate rental income, this space offers both flexibility and opportunity. Previously home to a church, dance studio, and pool hall, the layout is wide open for your next idea.

The building does require some updates, but the price reflects the work needed—making it a great fit for someone ready to roll up their sleeves and build equity. Properties with this much space and potential don’t come along often!

Built in 1957
