Pride of ownership is evident in this charming, well-maintained bungalow that's hitting the market for the first time. Situated on an expansive 11,500+ sq ft R2-zoned lot, this property offers exceptional potential for expansion.

The main floor features a spacious living room, two bright bedrooms, a full bathroom, and a large kitchen with ample room for cooking and dining. Unique to this home are two cozy sunrooms—one facing north and the other west—perfect for enjoying your morning coffee or evening sunsets.

Downstairs you'll find two additional bedrooms and a comfortable family room, offering great space for guests or extended family.

Over the years, the home has seen important upgrades including a new roof, furnace replacement, and a hot water tank (2022). While it retains its original character, the home is in excellent shape and provides a solid foundation for future updates or renovation projects.
