With over 1250 square feet, including a large addition, there's room for everyone, whether you're a first-time buyer, downsizing, or simply looking for more value without compromising comfort. From the moment you step inside, you'll notice the difference. The walls and ceilings have been completely drywalled, creating a clean, solid, residential feel rarely found in mobile homes.

The furnace has been professionally maintained and the electrical outlets have all been updated, adding to the peace of mind. Both the interior and exterior doors are new, and the roof and skirting have also been redone. The entire exterior has been wrapped in Styrofoam insulation, helping to keep the home warm in winter and cool in summer.

The kitchen awaits your personal touch and is being sold as-is, upper cabinets have already been purchased and are included with the sale, and quotes are available if you'd prefer to have the installation completed before moving in. Outside, the home features durable aluminum siding, a private side yard, exterior shed, and parking for two vehicles. With three bedrooms, including the option to use the addition as a second living room or large primary suite, there's flexibility for families, roommates, or hobbyists needing extra space.
